THE PUNJAB LAND REVENUE (HIMACHAL PRADESH AMENDMENT) BILL, 1952

(As introduced in the Legislative Assembly)

A

to amend the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887) in its application to Himachal Pradesh.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—It is hereby enacted as follows :—

(1) This Act may be called the Punjab Land Revenue (Himachal Pradesh Amendment) Act, 1952.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of the Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Amendment of Sections 136 and 137.—In sections 136 and 137 of Chapter XI of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887) as applied to Himachal Pradesh, for the words "The Punjab Courts Act, 1884" wherever they occur the words "The Himachal Pradesh Courts Order, 1948", shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In order to enable the State Government to invest the Settlement Officer, Chamba, with the powers of a Civil Court under Sections 136 and 137 of Chapter XI of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887) as applied to Himachal Pradesh for deciding suits relating to land during Settlement operations in the Chamba District, it is necessary to substitute the words "The Punjab Courts Act, 1884" occurring in Section 136 and 137 referred to above by the words "The Himachal Pradesh Courts Order, 1948" as all the Courts in Himachal Pradesh have been constituted under the said order. This Bill seeks to amend accordingly Sections 136 and 137 of the Punjab Land Revenue Act in its application to Himachal Pradesh.

The 1952.

ORDERS BY THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER, STATE OF AJMER

NOTIFICATION

Ajmer, the 25th July 1952

No. R/2.—In exercise of the powers conferred on the Central Government by Section 3 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act 1946 (No. XXIV of 1946) and delegated to him in the Government of India, late Department of Food Notification No. PY-603(2)-1, dated the 21st October, 1946 as subsequently amended and as continued under Section 17 of the said Act, the Chief Commissioner, State of Ajmer, with the prior concurrence of the Central Government, hereby makes the following Order :—

(1) Short title, extent and commencement.

(i) This Order may be called Ajmer Food Rationing Order, 1952.

(ii) It extends to the areas specified in schedule 1 to this Order, provided that the Chief Commissioner may by notification in the Official Gazette amend the first schedule to this Order and thereby extend the provisions of this Order to any other area in the State of Ajmer or withdraw its application from any area.

Provided further that when the Chief Commissioner withdraws the application of this Order to any area, such withdrawal shall not :—

- (a) affect the previous operation of the Order in that area or any act done or suffered thereunder in that area,
- (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under this Order in that area,
- (c) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed under this Order in that area.
- (d) affect any investigation legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Order were still in force in that area.

(2) Interpretations.

In this Order unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context :—

- (a) 'Rationed area' means.—Any area specified in schedule 1 appended to this Order and such other area as may be specified by the Chief Commissioner from time to time.
- (b) 'Rationed commodity' means.—Any of the food-grains including their products and their admixtures as specified in schedule 2 appended to this Order. Provided that the Chief Commissioner may at any time order the inclusion in the said schedule of any other essential commodity as defined in Section 2(a) of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946.
- (c) 'Ration document' includes.—A ration card, a ration coupon, a ration book, an authority or permit or any other document issued or made under the provisions of this Order or the Ajmer Entertainment of Guests Control Order, 1952.
- (d) 'Authorised retail distributor' means.—Any person authorised by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies to run a ration shop under the provisions of this Order.
- (e) 'Heavy manual labourer' means.—A person engaged in heavy manual work.

Explanation :

The decision of the Director of Food & Civil Supplies, Ajmer, shall be final as to whether any person is or is not a heavy manual labourer.

- (f) 'Rationing week' means.—A period of seven days commencing from midnight of Sunday and ending on the midnight of the succeeding Sunday.

(g) Establishment.—An establishment includes a catering or residential establishment, a boarding house or other institution, a dhaba, a hotel, a halwai's shop, a bhatiarkhana or any other place of business where edibles of rationed commodity are prepared for sale.

(3) Application for a ration card other than supplementary ration card

Any person ordinarily residing or intending to reside in any rationed area as specified in schedule 1 to whom a ration card has not already been issued and who desires the same to be issued shall apply either by himself or through head of his family or through host to the Ward Officer concerned in Ajmer or Assistant Director of Food and Civil Supplies in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer and furnish true and correct information in the form A or B of schedule III to this order as may be applicable. The Ward Officer or the Assistant Director of Food and Civil Supplies as the case may be may make or cause to be made such enquiry as he considers necessary for proper verification of the particulars furnished by the applicant.

(4) Issue of a ration card.—A ration card shall be issued in the name of the person applying for it or on whose behalf an application under clause 3 is made, if :—

(a) such a person ordinarily resides in the rationed area or intends to reside permanently in such area, or,

(b) he is a visitor or a guest and is likely to stay in such area for a period not more than 8 weeks at any time, and every such ration card shall show whether it is meant for an adult or a child.

A ration card issued under sub-clause (a) above shall be called a permanent ration card and a ration card issued under sub-clause (b) shall be called a temporary ration card and shall be inscribed accordingly.

Explanation :

'For the purposes of this Order a child means a person below eight years of age and adult means a person who has completed eight years.'

(5) Prohibition to apply for a ration card if the same has already been obtained.

(a) Save in the case of an application for a supplementary ration card by a heavy manual labourer, no person shall apply for or obtain a permanent or a temporary ration card for himself and another person if a permanent ration card has already been obtained for himself or such other person.

(b) No person shall apply for or obtain a permanent or temporary ration card for himself or another person, if a temporary ration card for the same period has already been obtained for himself or such person.

(c) No person shall apply for or obtain a supplementary ration card if he has already obtained one.

(6) Prohibition to give false particulars in an application for issue of a ration card or permit.

No person shall furnish false particulars in an application for issue of a ration card or for an establishment or special permit.

(7) Prohibition to obtain rations on more than one ration card or permit

Obtaining a rationed commodity more than once during the same period for the same purpose by or on behalf of the same person or establishment is prohibited.

(8) Prohibition to possess a bogus or defunct ration card or permit and obligation to surrender the same.

(a) No person shall have in his possession a bogus or defunct ration card or establishment or special permit.

(b) Any person possessing a defunct ration card or establishment or special permit shall surrender the same to the Ward Officer concerned within 15 days of its becoming defunct.

(c) A bogus ration card or establishment or special permit shall be surrendered at the nearest Ward Office or Rationing Office as soon as one comes in possession of it.

(9) Validity and extension of a temporary ration card.

The Ward Officer or Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned shall specify on one or more coupons of a temporary ration card the days or weeks for which it is valid and the temporary ration card shall be valid accordingly. The Ward Officer or Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies may, at the request of the holder of the card and after making such enquiries as may be necessary, specify on any of the other coupons the further days or weeks for which they shall be valid, and the validity of the card shall be extended accordingly. On every such extension the Ward Officer or Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies shall issue intimation to the A.R.D. with whom that card is registered and the intimation shall be retained by such distributor.

(10) Value of coupons and units.

Each coupon on an adult ration card shall be equivalent to 1 unit and each coupon on a child ration card shall be equivalent to 1/2 unit, provided that for the purpose of distribution of sugar a child's card shall be equivalent to 1 unit.

(11) Quantity of a rationed commodity per unit.

The quantity of each rationed commodity represented by a unit and that to be supplied on a supplementary ration card shall be such quantities as are specified in this behalf from time to time by the Chief Commissioner.

(12) Supplementary ration cards.

The Director of Food & Civil Supplies, State of Ajmer, or the Ward Officer of the Rationing Ward concerned may on application made to him in Form C of schedule III to this order, issue or cause to be issued a supplementary ration card to a heavy manual labourer. A supplementary ration card shall consist of 52 coupons. Each coupon shall bear an inscription denoting serial number of the week commencing from the 1st week for which a coupon shall be valid.

(13) Notice of departure from rationed area and surrender of ration card on such departure.

(i) It shall be the duty of every holder of a ration card who is absent or intends to be absent for more than 7 days from any rationed area to intimate this fact to the Ward Officer concerned in the case of Ajmer and the Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer. In the case of minors and females, such intimation shall be given on their behalf by the respective heads of the family. Every such intimation shall contain the serial number of ration card, full name, address and age of the holder together with the name of the head of the family, and the date of the departure and period of expected absence.

Provided that in lieu of giving such notice the holder or the head of the family may deposit the ration card of the holder before his departure with the Ward Officer or the Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies, as the case may be and obtain a receipt therefor. If the holder returns to the rationed area within 8 weeks from the date of his absence, the ration card so deposited shall be returnable to him on production of such receipt to the officer concerned.

(ii) If the absence is or is intended to be for more than 8 weeks the holder or as the case may be, the head of the family shall surrender the ration card of the absentee within a week of the knowledge of absence or intended absence to the officer concerned.

(iii) In the case of the death of the holder of a ration card, the head of the family or the next senior member of the family shall within 15 days from the date of death surrender the ration card of the deceased for cancellation to the officer concerned.

(14) Notice of change of address.

(i) Every holder of a ration card shifting from one house to another in any rationed area shall notify in writing any change in his address to the Ward Officer of the ward concerned or the Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies in the case of rationed area other than Ajmer. Such notice may be given by the holder or on his behalf by the head of the family. The notice shall, if not given in advance, be given within 10 days from the date on which the change of address actually takes place. Such notice shall contain the following particulars:—

- (a) (i) Serial number and code number of ration card.
- (ii) Serial number and code number of supplementary ration card, if any.
- (b) Name of the holder of the ration card.
- (c) His old address in full,
- (d) His new address in full,
- (e) Date from which the change of address will take place or has taken place,

(ii) The notice to the Ward Officer of the Ward to which he shifts shall be accompanied by the ration card.

(iii) On receipt of such notice and ration card, the Ward Officer shall make or cause to be made necessary changes on the ration card and shall deliver the ration card without undue delay to the holder.

(15) Number of coupons and period of their validity.

Save as otherwise provided a ration card other than a temporary or supplementary ration card shall contain 52 coupons: each coupon denoting the serial number of the week commencing from the 1st week for which the coupons shall be valid.

(16) Obligation to have a ration card or an establishment or special permit registered with an A.R.D. before obtaining supplies.

No person shall obtain any rationed commodity on a ration card or an establishment or special permit unless he first:—

1. signs or puts his thumb impression in the space provided for the purpose on the ration card or establishment permit,
2. gets his ration card or establishment permit registered with an A.R.D. in accordance with instructions issued in this behalf by the Director of Food and Civil Supplies.

(17) Distribution of rationed commodities to Railway employees.

1. The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may permit (the Controller of Grain Shops, Western Railways or) any other officer in charge of Railway Grain Shops to run their own distributing machinery in respect of such of the rationed commodities as may be specified by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies. In such a case it shall be obligatory on the several Railway Grain Shops to obtain authorisations as provided in clause 22 of this Order relating to Ration Cards and Authorised Ration Distributors shall apply to such grain shops in respect of the ration cards issued and supplies made thereunder to its employees by the Railway.

2. The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may call for such information as he may consider necessary from the Controller of Railway Grain Shops or any other officer in charge of Railway grain shops with respect to the supply, stocks and other matters relating to distribution of rationed commodities by the Railway authorities and the Railway authorities shall be bound to supply such information.

3. The Railway authorities to whom a permit under clause (1) has been given shall comply with such instructions as may from time to time be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies in this behalf.

(18) Distribution of rationed commodities by an employer or a Co-operative Society.

In special cases where an employer employs more than 100 employees or a Consumers' Co-operative Society consists of more than 100 members, the Director of Food & Civil Supplies may if he thinks fit, appoint the employer or the Society as an Authorised Retail Distributor who will register the ration cards of the employees or the members only, as the case may be.

(19) Distribution by an authorised retail dealer for the benefit of a class of persons.

(a) The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may appoint any A.R.D. to distribute rationed commodities to a specified class of persons only.

(b) An authorised retail distributor running a shop for the benefit of a class of persons shall, when requested to do so, register the holder of a ration card who is a member of the class including members of his household and shall refuse to register the card or cards of a holder who is not a member of such a class unless specially authorised by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies.

(20) Supply of rationed articles to registered ration card or establishment or special permit holders.

(1) On demand and tender of price by or on behalf of the holder of ration card or an establishment or special permit to an authorised retail distributor and against cancellation of the appropriate coupon or coupons by writing the quantity to be supplied, the distributor shall supply to the holder rationed articles not exceeding the quantity obtainable on the coupon or coupons. Immediately after the supply is made the A.R.D. shall enter all relevant particulars of the supply correctly in a register to be maintained by him in the form D of schedule III to this Order and get the entry of supplies signed or thumb marked by the purchaser.

(2) The distributor shall comply with such other directions as may be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies, Ajmer.

(21) Transfer of registration.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, the Director of Food & Civil Supplies may order transfer of a person registered with any A.R.D. from such distributor to another A.R.D.

(22) Obligations and responsibilities of A.R.Ds.

(1) It shall be obligatory on every person to whom a retail distributor's shop has been allotted to obtain an authorisation in the form E prescribed in schedule III of this Order from the Director of Food & Civil Supplies and to comply with the obligations, conditions and directions specified in schedule IV appended to this Order, which shall have the same binding effect as the provisions of this Order itself. An authorisation issued under this order shall remain in force for one year or till such date as may be specified by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies in the authorisation and may be renewed from time to time and for such further period as may be fixed by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies.

(2) No A.R.D. shall adulterate or otherwise mix any foreign matter with the rationed commodities obtained by him for sale to the ration card holders or establishment or special permit holders.

(3) Every A.R.D. shall maintain a true and correct account of the stocks and sales of the rationed commodities at the place of his business and he shall be responsible to ensure that the stocks held by him at any time correspond to and tally with the stocks shown in his registers, provided that a difference between book balance and actual weight on physical weighment shall be condonable upto 1/2 per cent. of his weekly supplies during any rationing week.

(4) The person or persons in whose name an authorisation to run a retail distributor's shop has been issued and every Munim, Manager, Agent and any other person working at the shop, shall be responsible for all breaches of this Order, and the person or persons in whose name the authorisation stands shall not be absolved of responsibility on the ground that he had no knowledge of the contravention of any provisions of this Order.

(5) Every authorised retail distributor shall inform the Director of Food & Civil Supplies, Ajmer, within 15 days from the coming into force of this Order or from the date of his authorisation whichever is earlier, the names and addresses of the Munims, Managers, Agents, if any, who have been so appointed to manage the business of the shop. If the authorised retail distributor is a Co-operative Society, the addresses of the President, Secretary and other members of the Managing Committee shall also be so notified to the Director of Food & Civil Supplies in addition to the names and addresses of the Managers and Munims. Every change in such names and addresses shall be notified to the Director of Food & Civil Supplies within 10 days of the change for his approval.

(23) Registration of establishments.

(a) Every person in charge of an establishment who wants to obtain any rationed commodity shall make an application in the form F prescribed in schedule III to this Order to the Director of Food and Civil Supplies for registration of his establishment. Such application shall be enquired into and the Director of Food & Civil Supplies, after necessary enquiries, may order entry of his name in a register maintained for this purpose in form G of schedule III. No establishment permit shall be granted to any establishment unless it has been so registered.

(b) The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may grant a certificate of registration in form G to an establishment registered under clause (a) above.

(24) Permits for establishment.

(a) A ration permit in form H of Schedule III to this Order may be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies after due enquiry to the person in charge of an establishment on application made by him in this behalf. The quantity of rationed commodity allowed on an establishment permit shall be fixed by the issuing officer on the basis of the number of residents in the case of boarding house and other institutions, and in case of other establishments according to the volume of business conducted by such establishments.

(b) Establishments receiving supplies of rationed commodities on establishment permits shall be bound to comply with such instructions regarding the price of the eatables sold by them, maintenance and submission of accounts and other allied matters as may be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies from time to time.

(c) No person shall run an establishment dealing with rationed commodities without obtaining a registration certificate under clause 23 (b) of this Order.

(25) Use of establishment permits.

No person obtaining rationed commodities on an establishment permit shall use them or part thereof for any purpose other than that of the establishment.

(26) Special permits.

The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may in his discretion order issue of a special permit for any rationed commodity on receipt of an application for the following purposes :—

- (1) Distribution of 'Prashad' or 'Tabarruq' in Temples, Dargah, Gurdwara, etc.
- (2) For feeding birds, poultry, domestic animals and beasts.
- (3) Consumption in educational and charitable institutions like Hatundi Ashram, Madar Sanatorium & Christ Raj Ashram which lie outside rationed area.

Provided that permits for rationed commodities for feeding guests on occasions of marriage, deaths or other functions shall be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies in accordance with the provisions of the Ajmer Entertainment of Guests Control Order, 1952. Provided further that the Chief Commissioner may in his discretion allow the issue of permits for any ration commodity for purposes and occasions other than those mentioned in sub-clause 1, 2 and 3 above.

(27) Obligation on an establishment keeper to supply food to residents.

On demand and offer of price the person in charge of an establishment shall supply food prepared from the rationed articles to a resident or customer not regularly residing in rationed area.

(28) Prohibition on supply of rationed articles except by an authorised dealer or establishment and prohibition against refusal to supply.

(a) No person other than an authorised retail distributor shall supply or offer or attempt to supply to any person any rationed commodity.

(b) No Authorised Retail Distributor shall refuse to supply any rationed commodity to any person presenting a valid ration card or permit and tendering the price thereof, if such person is entitled to draw such supply on such ration card or permit.

(29) Prohibition on supply of rationed commodity against the provisions of this Order.

No authorised retail distributor shall supply or offer or attempt to supply any rationed commodity except under and in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(30) Prohibition on obtaining rationed articles otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

No person shall obtain or attempt to obtain any rationed commodity except under and in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(31) Exception.

Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to restrict distribution by any person of any rationed commodity lawfully obtained by him :—

- (a) to members of the same household or to guests sharing meals in such household; or
- (b) to any other person either without payment of price of such rationed articles or in exchange for any other rationed article.

(32) Availability of rationed articles only by means of ration document.

Except as otherwise provided by this Order a rationed commodity shall be obtained only by means of a ration document available for lawful use.

(33) Use of ration document.

(1) A ration document shall be used either by the person in respect of whom it is issued or by any person authorised by the holder of such ration document.

(2) No ration card shall be used for obtaining a rationed commodity unless the holder of such card is living and is in the rationed area in which such card is issued and is at the time of the drawing of rations, entitled to draw the rations.

(3) No establishment permit shall be used for obtaining a rationed commodity unless the person in charge of the establishment is living and is running the establishment in the rationed area in which such permit is issued.

(34) Ration document to remain the property of the Central Government.

(a) Every ration document issued under this Order shall be the property of the Central Government, but the person to whom it is issued or surrendered or with whom it is retained under the provisions of this Order shall be entitled to its custody and shall be responsible for its safe preservation.

(b) No person shall mutilate, destroy, or in any way tamper with a ration document.

(35) Replacement of lost or defaced ration documents.

The Director of Food & Civil Supplies, Ajmer, may after making such enquiries as he may think fit issue a new ration document in place of a lost or a defaced one on payment of a fee of rupees five in the case of an authorisation or a ration authority or an establishment or special permit and on annas four in the case of ration cards provided that in cases of hardship the Director of Food & Civil Supplies, Ajmer, may waive payment of these charges. Every person to whom a new ration document has been issued shall, if he subsequently finds the lost ration document, forthwith return the document so recovered to the said officer. An application for issue of a new ration card or permit shall be made in form I of schedule III to this Order. The powers exercisable by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies to issue a new ration document in place of a lost or defaced one shall be exercisable by Ward Officer concerned in Ajmer and Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the rationed areas other than Ajmer with respect to ration card only.

(36) Prohibition on transfer of certain ration documents.

No person shall transfer to any other person a ration card or a permit in his name except to an agent for purposes of drawing rations on his behalf.

(37) Deposit of ration documents by person in unauthorised possession thereof.

Any person coming into possession in any manner of a ration card or permit which cannot be lawfully used by him under the provisions of this Order, shall forthwith deposit the same with the nearest Ward Officer or any other rationing officer.

(38) Power to investigate, search, etc.

Any officer of the Food & Civil Supplies Department not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector or any other officer authorised in writing by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies in this behalf may :—

- (1) investigate into a case of contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, and for that purpose examine any person or summon him before himself for such examination.
- (2) at all times inspect any stocks of rationed commodities, any ration document or cause to be inspected or order the production before himself of any book or other document pertaining to dealings in any rationed commodity from the control of any person, and
- (3) enter and search any premises, vehicles, vessels or aircrafts and seize any articles in respect of which he has reason to believe that any contravention of this Order has been, is being or is about to be committed and any other article which he has reason to believe has been or is intended to be used in connection with such contravention.

(39) Surrender of ration documents and rendering of accounts and information by authorised dealers and establishments.

Every authorised retail distributor, establishment keeper or a permit holder as the case may be shall when so required by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies or any Officer of the Food & Civil Supplies Department not below the rank of a sub-Inspector :—

- (1) deliver to him all coupons and other authorities and documents; and
- (2) furnish correctly such particulars or information relating to his dealing in and stocks of rationed articles as may be required.

(40) Maximum quantity of foodgrains that can be possessed by a person in rationed area.

No person other than an authorised retail distributor shall have in his possession without the written permission of the Director of Food & Civil Supplies more than the following quantities of rationed commodities over and above the quantities which such person is entitled to receive under a ration document at a time :—

Wheat—20 seers per adult.

Other foodgrains including rice—10 seers per adult.

Explanation.

Nothing in this clause shall authorise an establishment keeper to possess controlled foodgrains more than what he is entitled to receive under a ration document at a time.

(41) Obligation of a producer of controlled foodgrains in a rationed area.

(a) Every person producing rationed foodgrains in a rationed area shall submit a true return of his produce to the Deputy Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Distribution) or Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies as the case may be within 10 days of the receipt of such foodgrains by him alongwith the ration cards of himself and his family.

(b) On receipt of such return and ration documents, the Officer concerned shall cancel the appropriate coupons in such ration cards or permits in respect of the foodgrains so received by such a person for a period not exceeding one year as may be sufficient to make up the quantity which would have been issued to him on such card or permit if he had continued to draw ration thereon. The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may issue such directions to the producer for the disposal of the remaining stocks of foodgrains with him as he may think necessary and the producer shall comply with such directions.

(c) No person on whose ration cards or permits endorsements under clause (b) above have been made shall obtain or attempt to obtain any rationed foodgrains so long as the restrictions under clause (b) continue and no authorised retail dealer shall supply any such foodgrains on such cards or permits.

(42) Prohibition on import and export of controlled foodgrains in and out of a rationed area.

(1) The import of rationed commodities into any rationed area is prohibited except under a permit issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies.

(2) The export of rationed commodities from a rationed area is prohibited except under a permit issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies.

(3) The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may allow a person residing in a rationed area to import such quantities of rationed commodities produced on lands held by him in non-rationed areas as he may think fit and thereafter the provisions of clause 41 shall apply to such foodgrains as they apply to foodgrains produced in the rationed areas.

(4) Nothing in this clause shall apply to the transport (including export and import) by a bona fide traveller of rationed commodities in the State of Ajmer upto a quantity not exceeding five seers in all as part of his personal luggage.

(43) Amendments and alterations in ration documents.

The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may at any time add to, amend, vary or rescind any ration document and may for this purpose issue such additional instructions as he may think necessary. An application for amendments in a ration document including those covered by clauses 14 and 21 of this Order shall be made in form J of schedule III to this Order.

(44) Certain powers of Director of Food & Civil Supplies to be exercised by other Officers also.

The powers conferred on the Director of Food & Civil Supplies under the provisions of this Order except those under clause 26 shall be exercised also by the Deputy Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Distribution) in case of Ajmer and by the Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer.

(45) Suspension and removal of A.R.Ds. and provision as to forfeiture of their securities.

The Director of Food & Civil Supplies may suspend or remove any A.R.D. and cancel his authorisation and may forfeit a part or whole his security for breach of any of the provisions of this Order. Such action shall be without prejudice to and may be in addition to the criminal prosecution of the defaulting A.R.D.

(46) Provision as to confiscation.

Any Court trying an offence relating to a contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, may, if the offence is proved, also direct that any packages, coverings, receptacles in which any property liable to forfeiture under Section 7(2) of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act 1946 is found and any animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyance used in carrying the said property shall be forfeited to the Government.

(47) All powers under this Order to be exercised by the Chief Commissioner also.

Every power which under this Order is exercisable by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies or any other authority shall also be exercisable by the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer, and by such other officer as may be authorised by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf either generally or for a particular purpose.

(48) Powers of Chief Commissioner to revise or review orders.

The Chief Commissioner, Ajmer, may in his discretion call for and set aside, alter or amend any proceedings or orders passed by any authority under this Order and may also review any orders passed by himself.

(49) Effect of defect in ration documents etc.

(a) No appointment made or a ration document or any other document issued or order or direction passed under this Order shall be deemed to be invalid nor any act done in pursuance thereof be needed to be illegal merely on account of any defect or want of form therein.

(b) Any person who runs an A.R.D.'s shop without obtaining an authorisation under clause 22 of this Order or who runs the same on the authority of an imperfect, defective or invalid authorisation, shall be subject to and bound to obey all the restrictions and obligations imposed on an A.R.D. by this Order in spite of the defect, illegality or absence of the authorisation.

(c) Any person who uses any ration document shall be subject to all obligations, conditions and restrictions imposed by this Order on a person using such document in spite of being any defect or irregularity in the said document.

(50) Any one contravening the provisions of this Order shall :—

(i) (a) Be liable to punishment under Section 7(2) of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Amendment Act (LII of 1950) with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine unless for reasons to be recorded, the Court is of opinion that a sentence of fine only will meet the ends of justice and,

(b) Any person in respect of which along with moveable by aid where of the order has been contravened or such part thereof as the Court may deem fit shall be forfeited to Government, unless for reasons to be recorded the Court is of opinion that it is necessary to direct forfeiture in respect of the whole or as the case may be a part of the property.

(ii) Where the contravention is in respect of maximum quantity of any controlled foodgrains that may lawfully be possessed by any person or class of persons under this Order or any other Order in respect of controlled foodgrains and the person contravening the Order is found to have been in possession of foodgrains exceeding twice the maximum quantity so prescribed he shall be liable to be sentenced under Section 7(2) Proviso (a) and (b) of the said Act to imprisonment for a term which may extend to 7 years and to a fine which may be not less than 20 (twenty) times the value of the foodgrains found in his possession and the whole of such foodgrains in excess of the prescribed quantity shall be forfeited to Government.

(iii) If any person contravenes any terms of a licence issued to him or any direction given to him in writing in respect of the sale, purchase or storage of controlled foodgrains, or maintenance of correct accounts in respect of controlled foodgrains he shall without prejudice to any other action which may be taken against him by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies or the licence issuing authority be punished with imprisonment which may extend to 3 years or with fine or with both under Sections 7(3) and (4) ibid.

(51) Repeals and savings.

This Notification replaces the Ajmer-Merwara Rationing Order, 1947 (Notification No. R/31, dated the 10th September, 1947 and Ajmer-Merwara Rationing Regulations Notification No. R/32, dated the 10th September, 1947) and the Ajmer-Merwara Essential Articles Movement Control Order, 1949 No. R/1, dated 14th April 1949 from the date of the publication of this Order in the Gazette of India.

Provided that any thing done or deemed to have been done under any of the provisions of the orders or regulation replaced shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of this Order.

SCHEDULE IV.

Instructions to and obligations of Retail Distributor.

(1) No A.R.D. shall run a ration shop unless he has executed an agreement in the form K presented in schedule III to the Order, deposited with the Dy. Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Accounts) in the case of Ajmer and with the Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer, a security of Rs. 200/- and obtained an authorisation to run a retail distributor's shop in form E presented in schedule III.

(2) Sign Boards.

Each A.R.D. shall display outside his shop a sign board showing the A.R.D. retail number allotted to him.

(3) Ration Documents.

No A.R.D. shall supply rationed commodities to any person other than the holder of a valid ration card or a valid ration permit or to an agent of such holder, registered with him in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained.

(4) Type of Ration Card.

The ration card of a person under 2 years of age is valid only for sugar and this is indicated by the words 'Valid for sugar only' stamped on the face of the card. On cards of persons between 2 years and 8 years of age the word 'Adult' appearing on the right hand top corner of the card should be deleted. In the case of cards for persons of 8 years of age and over, the word 'child' should be deleted and the word 'Adult' only retained on the right hand top corner of the ration card.

(5) Permits for Establishments.

Ration permits issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies or the Dy. Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Distribution) in the case of Ajmer and Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer to registered establishment shall be registered by such A.R.Ds. in accordance with such instructions as may be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies from time to time.

(6) Register of ration card and permit holders.

(a) When a ration card or a permit is presented for registration, the A.R.D. shall after verifying the units and other particulars enter the ration card or the ration permits in his register of ration cards or permits. Such registers shall be maintained in the form L prescribed in schedule III.

(b) The total of ration cards entered on each page and the number of units represented thereby in the register should be added and the total should be entered at the foot of every page in ink. A space of 1 in. should be left below the total in order that such total may be amended subsequently when necessary.

(c) Register for the registration of temporary ration cards shall be maintained in form L1 prescribed in schedule 3 appended to this Order.

(7) Procedure for registration of ration cards.

At the time of registering a ration card or ration permit, the A.R.D. shall first see that the thumb impression or the signature of the holder appears thereon. The A.R.D. should then enter on the ration card and its counterfoil—

(a) His name,

(b) His shop number, and

(c) the reference serial number of his register of card holders referred to above.

The A.R.D. should then sign the ration card or permit in the space provided for the purpose. A rubber stamp may be used for the purpose of entering the aforesaid particulars, but the signatures on the ration card or the ration permit shall be made by himself.

The reference serial number of the A.R.D.'s register of ration card holders should be noted on the ration card immediately below the serial number of such ration card and its counterfoil.

The A.R.D. shall then detach and retain the counterfoil and for that purpose he may keep a small box so that the counterfoils may not be lost.

The A.R.D. in consultation with and as far as practicable in accordance with the wishes of the holder should fix a day of the week for issuing supplies. The day so fixed should be entered on the ration card or ration permit for the information of the holder. It must be remembered that this arrangement is made only for convenience and does not entitle the A.R.D. to refuse to make supplies to the holder on other days of the week. The A.R.D. may also arrange that consumers are spread over equally during the 6 days of the week when the shop is opened.

(8) Supplies to A.R.Ds.

The A.R.D. should submit to the Ward Officer concerned in the case of Ajmer and to the Asstt. Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in case of rationed areas other than Ajmer on such day every week as may be fixed by the officer concerned on indent in the form M presented in schedule III for obtaining rationed commodities. The indent shall be for the week following that in which it is submitted. This indent should include a consolidated weekly statement of the registered units as certified by the Inspector at the time of his check immediately preceding the completion of the indent. At the same time the A.R.D. shall submit his registers for permanent, temporary and supplementary ration cards or establishment permits for inspection along with his daily sales register. On the basis of the indent and the number of registered units, the Dy. Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Distribution) in the case of Ajmer and Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer may issue a ration authority to the A.R.D. in the form N prescribed in schedule III. The A.R.D. may receive the rationed commodities upto the authorised quantity from Government godowns after making payment of the price in such manner as may be fixed by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies from time to time.

(9) Minimum stocks to be maintained by an A.R.D.

Every A.R.D. shall maintain stock of all rationed commodities sufficient to meet the requirements of card and permit holders registered with him for at least 10 days provided the same are available for issue to him in payment in Government godowns.

(10) Prohibition on issuing of rations twice or in excess.

No A.R.D. shall make supplies of rations twice on the same card or permit for the same period nor shall he make supplies for more units than the holder is entitled. Supplies not taken by a consumer during any rationing period shall not be issued to him after the expiry of that period except with the previous permission of the Director of Food & Civil Supplies.

(11) Procedure for supply of rations to consumers.

The consumer, will bring his ration card or ration permit to the A.R.D. concerned. The A.R.D. shall first check the name entered on the ration card or permit and verify that the card or permit is duly registered with him. He shall also check the number of units allotted to the holder.

The A.R.D. shall then on cash payment supply the entire quantity of rationed commodities issuable on ration cards or permits presented to the A.R.D. according to the quantum fixed under this order, unless the card or permit holder or his agent offers to forego the whole or any part of any of the rationed commodities to which the holder is entitled or unless some of the rationed commodities are not available in stock with the A.R.D.

(12) Every A.R.D. shall comply with such instructions and directions relating to the details of supply and other matters as may be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies from time to time.

(13) Maintenance of daily sales register.

Every A.R.D. shall correctly maintain a daily sales register in the form D prescribed in schedule III. All entries in this register shall be made by the A.R.D. as far as possible immediately after a sale takes place. One entry only shall be made for each sale in this register. When all the ration cards of one family are presented at one time for taking supplies of rations, one consolidated entry may be made in register. After each sale the A.R.D. shall also cancel the appropriate coupons on the ration card or permit by noting the quantity issued against the appropriate column for each rationed commodity, and shall also put his initials in the space provided for this purpose on such card or permit.

(14) Obligation to obtain signatures of card holders on sales register and to issue cash memo.

At the time of each sale the A.R.D. shall obtain the signatures or thumb impression of the person drawing rations in the sale register against the entry pertaining to that sale and shall also issue a cash memo. for each sale in the form O prescribed in schedule III. The A.R.D. shall put his signature on the sales register each day at the close of the sales of the day.

(15) Weights and Measures.

Each A.R.D. shall keep sufficient sets of weights and measures duly tested by the Weights and Measures Authorities at least once in a year.

(16) Daily Stock register.

Every A.R.D. shall correctly maintain a daily stocks register in the form P prescribed in schedule III. It shall be completed every evening and shall be signed by the A.R.D. after striking the closing balance for the day.

(17) Samples.

Every A.R.D. shall maintain correct set of small clear glass bottles in which he shall display representative samples of each quality of rationed commodities which he offers for sale. Such bottles shall be displayed at the conspicuous place in the shop after they have been properly sealed in accordance with instructions that may be issued by the Director of Food & Civil Supplies in this behalf.

(18) Inspection of records.

The A.R.D. account books, registers and stocks shall be open to inspection by any officer of the Food & Civil Supplies Department not below the rank of a sub-inspector, and the A.R.D. and his employees shall render all reasonable assistance required by such officer.

(19) Display of Notices—shop-hours—prices.

Every A.R.D. shall display a notice board showing the shop hours and a list of controlled prices of rationed commodities.

(20) Visitor's Book.

Every A.R.D. shall maintain at his shop a visitor's book. Any officer of the Local Administration or a member of the State or Sub-Divisional Advisory Committee inspecting the shop may make such remarks therein as he may think proper.

Every A.R.D. shall maintain a complaint book at his shop and shall keep it at a conspicuous place in his shop so that it may be visible to who-so-ever visits the shop. Any customer who wants to make a complaint shall be allowed by the A.R.D. to record his complaint in this book.

(22) Blank visitors books and complaint books shall be obtainable only from the office of the Director of Food and Civil Supplies, Ajmer, on payment of such price as may be fixed in this behalf. The first and last page of every such book shall be signed by the Dy. Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Distribution), Ajmer, in case of Ajmer and Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies concerned in the case of rationed areas other than Ajmer. No one shall mutilate, destroy or otherwise temper with the visitors or complaint book. No fresh visitors or complaint books shall be issued to any A.R.D. unless the previous one has been deposited or the loss thereof satisfactorily explained to the issuing officer. Such books shall be submitted to the Dy. Director of Food & Civil Supplies (Distribution) or the Assistant Director of Food & Civil Supplies as the case may be at the time of submitting the weekly indents.

Ajmer, the 25th July 1952

No. R/3.—In exercise of the powers conferred on the Central Government by Section 3 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (No. XXIV of 1946) and delegated to him in the Government of India, late Ministry of Food, Notification No. PY-603(2)-1, dated the 21st October, 1946, as subsequently amended and as continuing under section 17 of the said Act, the Chief Commissioner, State of Ajmer, with the prior concurrence of the Central Government hereby makes the following Order :—

(1) Short title, extent and commencement.

(i) This order may be called the Ajmer (non-Rationed Areas) Foodgrains Control Order, 1952.

(ii) It extends to areas other than those specified in Schedule 1 to Notification No. R/2, dated the 25th July 1952; provided that the Chief Commissioner may by Notification in the official gazette extend the provisions of this Order to any other area in the State of Ajmer or withdraw its application to any area, by an amendment of the aforesaid schedule.

Provided further that when the Chief Commissioner in the matter aforesaid withdraws the application of this Order to any areas, such withdrawals shall not :—

(a) Affect the previous operation of the Order in that area or any act done or suffered thereunder in that area,

(b) Affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under this Order in that area,

(c) Affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed under this Order in that area,

(d) Affect any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Order were still in force in that area.

3. Save as provided in clause 14 of this Order, no person shall engage in any undertaking which involves the purchase, sale or storage for sale of any controlled foodgrains except under and in accordance with a licence issued in this behalf by the Licensing Authority.

4. Every person who desires to obtain a wholesale or retail dealer's licence shall make an application in form A or B respectively of schedule II to this Order to the Licensing Authority of the area concerned.

5. The Licensing Authority may after such enquiry as it may think fit issue the required licence applied for, every applicant for a wholesale dealer's licence shall deposit a cash security of Rs. 500/- and every applicant for a retail dealer's licence shall deposit a cash security of Rs. 100.

6. (a) A wholesaler's licence shall be in form C and a retailer's licence shall be in form D of schedule II to this Order.

(b) No person shall commence business in controlled foodgrains unless he has obtained a licence under this Order, and has also deposited the amount of security required under clause 5 above.

(c) Every wholesale licensee shall be bound to comply with all the terms and conditions laid down in form C of schedule II to this Order and every retail licensee shall be bound to comply with all the terms and conditions laid down in form D of the said schedule.

7. A licensee may apply for the renewal of his licence at least one month before the expiry of the period of his licence to the Licensing Authority who may renew the same after such enquiry or without any enquiry as it may think fit. A licence which is not renewed shall be deemed to have been cancelled as from the date of its expiry.

8. The Licensing Authority may suspend or cancel the licence of any licensee and may forfeit a part or whole of his security for breach of any of the provisions of this Order or of any other Order under the Essential Supplies Act which is in force in the State of Ajmer. Such action shall be without prejudice to any may be in addition to the criminal prosecution of the defaulting licensee.

9. No person shall be granted a licence to run both retail and wholesale business in controlled foodgrains.

10. No person shall be granted a wholesale or retail licence for more than one place.

11. Every licensee under this Order shall issue true and correct receipts of his purchases of controlled foodgrains to the producer concerned and shall maintain a receipt book in triplicate in the form E of schedule II to this Order.

Similarly every producer shall issue cash memo. to the purchasing dealer in form F of schedule II to this Order.

12. Every licensee under this Order and every producer of controlled foodgrains who has received controlled foodgrains in quantities exceeding 50 maunds at any one or more of the two preceding harvests shall within 15 days of the coming into force of this Order submit to the Director of Food & Civil Supplies and the Sub-Divisional Officer concerned a true and correct statement in form G of schedule II to this Order of the stocks of controlled foodgrains held by him on the day this Order comes into force along with a list of the godowns, their locations and the quantities of controlled foodgrains stocked in each one of them.

13. No person except a licensee under this Order shall without the permission in writing of the licensing authority have in his possession at any one time more than 10 maunds when a single foodgrain is stored by a consumer and 50 maunds in aggregate where more than one foodgrain is stored by him; provided that any person requiring controlled foodgrains for the need of his family, dependents, live stock, seed, etc., in quantities exceeding the above limit, may make an application in the form H of schedule II to this Order to the Licensing Authority concerned for issue of permit to possess larger quantities of controlled foodgrains required by him, and the Licensing Authority may after such enquiry as it may think fit, either grant for possession of such quantities of the required foodgrains as it may think necessary or may refuse to grant a permit.

Provided further that it shall not be an offence for a producer of controlled foodgrains to have and continue to have in his possession controlled foodgrains exceeding 50 maunds upto the 1st day of July next in the case of Rabi grains and upto the first day of January next in the case of Kharif grains from the date of produce of such foodgrains but during such period it shall be obligatory on the part of the producer to submit a fortnightly return of his stocks to the Director and the Sub-Divisional Officer concerned in form I of schedule II of this Order till the quantity in possession of such producer is reduced to 50 maunds i.e. a producer of controlled foodgrains can have in his possession at any time foodgrains to the maximum limit of 50 maunds in aggregate.

14. A producer of controlled foodgrains shall sell his surplus stocks of controlled foodgrains to any person at prices that may be fixed by the Chief Commissioner from time to time, unless the Chief Commissioner by a notification restricts sale of such surplus stocks to a monopoly purchaser only in which case the sale shall take place in such manner as may be prescribed in the relevant notification.

15. (a) The licensing authority may by order in writing :—

(i) Direct a producer, licensee or any other person holding stocks of any controlled foodgrains to sell the whole or a part of such stocks at such prices and to such person or persons as it may specify in the order and such producer, licensee, or other person shall comply with all such directions

(ii) Direct a producer, licensee or any other person holding stocks of any controlled foodgrains not to sell the whole or any part of such stocks except to such person or persons as the said authority may thereafter specify.

(iii) In any other way regular distribution, sale and movement of controlled foodgrains by permits or otherwise.

(b) The Licensing Authority may from time to time issue such general or special orders or directions regarding the storage, movement, distribution, disposal, acquisition or use of controlled foodgrains as such authority may think fit and every person or persons to whom such orders or directions relate shall comply therewith.

(c) In issuing an order or direction under sub-clause (a) or (b) above the licensing authority shall have due regard to the stocks held by the person to whom the order or direction is issued and also to the normal requirements of such person.

16. Every licensed dealer shall maintain a true and correct account of his dealings in controlled foodgrains. Such accounts shall show in form J and K and L of schedule II to this Order the daily receipts, stocks and sales along with the prices paid and charged and the particulars of the persons from and to whom sales and purchases have been made and the balance of foodgrains with him each day.

16A. A licensee in foodgrains (viz. wholesale dealer or a retail dealer, who is also a producer) shall maintain separate accounts of the stocks acquired by him by virtue of his being a producer himself or getting his land cultivated by a tenant of any type.

17. No person shall carry or move or cause to be carried or moved or offer for carriage or movement by any means whatsoever controlled foodgrains from any place within the State of Ajmer to any place outside the State of Ajmer except under a permit issued by the Director; provided that a bonafide traveller may carry with him any controlled foodgrains not exceeding 5 seers in all as part of his personal luggage.

18. Movement of controlled foodgrains from one sub-division to another in the State of Ajmer is prohibited, except under a general or special permission granted by the Sub-Divisional Officer of the area from which such foodgrains are proposed to be moved.

19. (a) No person shall without the previous permission of the Sub-Divisional Officer concerned carry or cause to be carried or offer for carriage by any means whatsoever any controlled foodgrains into the corridor from any area in the State of Ajmer outside the corridor.

(b) No person shall without the previous permission of the Sub-Divisional Officer concerned carry or cause to be carried or offer for carriage by any means whatsoever any controlled foodgrains from any place in the corridor to any other place in the corridor.

(c) Provided that nothing under sub-clauses (a) and (b) of this clause shall apply to the movement of such foodgrains :—

(i) By a person for bonafide consumption of himself, his family and live stock upto one maund in weight.

(ii) By a cultivator from his field or thrashing floor to his house to the extent of his produce and from his house to the fields any reasonable quantities for sowing purposes.

(iii) By a producer or a receiver from the place of delivery to the place of storage.

(iv) By a dealer or a producer or a receiver in the process or for purposes of a bonafide sale or purchase permitted by this Order.

(v) By a person for grinding purposes from his house to a grinding mill and back from the grinding mill to his house.

20. (a) The maximum wholesale and retail prices at which any controlled foodgrains may be sold at different places in the State of Ajmer by a producer or a licensee shall be such as may be specified in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner, State of Ajmer, from time to time.

(b) No person shall sell any controlled foodgrains at a price exceeding that fixed under sub-clause (a) above.

21. If any order or direction issued by the Director under this Order is repugnant to or inconsistent with any Order or direction issued by a Sub-Divisional Officer, the order or direction issued by the Director shall prevail and the order of the Sub-Divisional Officer shall to the extent of the repugnancy or inconsistency be ineffective.

22. No person shall make any false or incorrect statement in any application made, return submitted, register maintained cash memo. or receipt issued or any other information furnished under or in pursuance of this Order.

23. No licensee under this Order holding stocks of any controlled foodgrains shall refuse to sell the same in reasonable quantities to any person demanding the same and offering price therefor.

24. The Chief Commissioner, Ajmer, may in his discretion call for and set aside, alter or amend any proceedings or orders passed by any authority under this order and may also review any orders passed by himself.

25. (a) No Order or direction passed, act done, licence, permit or any other authority issued under this Order, shall be deemed to be invalid merely on account of any defect or want of form therein.

(b) Any person who carries on business in any controlled foodgrains without obtaining a licence under this Order or who does so on the authority of an imperfect, defective or invalid licence shall be subject to and bound to obey all the obligations imposed on a licensee by this Order in spite of such defect, illegality or absence of licence and shall also be liable to be prosecuted for carrying on such business without a licence.

26. The Licensing Authority may at any time add to, alter, amend or cancel any licence or permit issued under this Order and may on sufficient cause being shown to it, replace or cause to be replaced any lost or defaced licence or permit.

27. No licensee or producer shall adulterate any saleable stocks of controlled foodgrains with him with any foreign matter nor sell any such adulterated foodgrains.

28. The Chief Commissioner, State of Ajmer, may by a general or special order for sufficient cause exempt any person or persons or class of persons from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Order.

29. It shall be the personal responsibility of every licensee under this Order to see that the provisions of this Order are complied with by himself or by his servant, munim, manager or agent and no licensee shall be absolved of his liability for a breach of any of the provisions of this Order on the ground that such contravention took place without his knowledge due to any default of such servant, munim, manager or agent of the licensee.

30. The import into and export out of the areas to which this Order applies of any controlled foodgrains is prohibited except under a permit issued by the Director.

31. (a) Every licence, permit and registers issued or required to be maintained under this Order shall be the property of the Central Government, but the person to whom it is issued or surrendered or with whom it is retained under the provisions of this Order, shall be responsible for its safe custody.
